

Justin Brinker Project Manager

SUMMARY

Justin has a strong background in managing large projects with aggressive schedules. His excellent leadership, communication, and relationship building skills allow him to provide the highest level of service to clients, earning frequent commendations as a result. Justin's proven ability to complete projects without cutting corners or sacrificing safety considerations, aligns with CER Services high standard of quality.

Work History

Turnbull-Wahlert Construction	2021—2022 Project Manager 2018—2021 Superintendent
Monarch Construction	2013—2018 Project Manager 2012—2013 Project Engineer
Lithko Contracting	2010—2012 Field Engineer
Baker Construction	2008—2010 Field Engineer

Education

Bachelor of Science Building Construction Management—Northern Kentucky University
Associates Degree Construction Science—Northern Kentucky University

Certifications

OSHA 30

Experience

18 years

Select Project Experience

Contemporary Art Center 6th Floor, Cincinnati, Ohio—7,000 sq. ft. renovation
Vintage Club Building C, Montgomery, Ohio—28,432 sq. ft.
311 Elm St. 3rd. Floor, Cincinnati, Ohio— 10,933 sq. ft. renovation
Adam's Edge Apartments, Cincinnati, Ohio—116,105 sq. ft. new construction
Best Point Education & Behavioral Health Hannah Bldg. Renovation—430,000 sq. ft. renovation
Best Point Education & Behavioral Health Emery Conference Room—195,000 sq. ft. renovation
UC Renovation Hub, Cincinnati, Ohio—103,000 sq. ft. renovation

